McGinley Gave the Alarm.

The fire was first discovered by Night Watchman P. McGinley. The watchman was standing on the Myers House corner when he saw the light in the sky and began to call "fire," as he rushed for the east side station. His calls awoke the men before the box was pulled, and as the officer opened the door to pull down the hook, the department came out. The fire had gained good headway, however, and the big frame building which was formerly occupied by Nelson Brothers as a livery stable, was a mass of flames. The structure had 140 feet frontage on Court street and was nearly as deep on Park street. While it was not all one building, the two were connected. Flames were hottest in the old harness room and about the front doors. While the hose was being laid, there was a puff of flame, smoke and cinders, and a great blaze leaped skyward carrying shingles and pieces of flaming boards high into the air and dropping them upon the adjoining roofs.

Building All Aflame.

The whole building was crackling and burning at a furious rate and water seemed to have but little effect. Flames roared and crackled and the great clouds of smoke studded with fiery cinders swirled up into the heavens. A portion of the roof went down with a crash and threw the cinders and flames up in a cloud. The roof had all been destroyed by this time and the flames attacked the side walls with renewed vigor. Through the openings for the doors and windows the blaze shown, lighting up the sky like the noonday sun. Not until the whole building had burned to within six feet of the ground was the blaze controlled. By this time the basement was filled with cinders, ashes, twisted iron work and blackened beams. The building was a total loss from the river to Park street and from Court street to the alley.

Proctor's Feed Store Caught.

While the flames in the larger building were curling up timbers and eating through plank as if it were paper the heat was working in another direction. Hardly had the firemen put a stream on the rear wall of the building in the Park street alley when flames burst out of the roof of H. C. Proctor's feed store which was just across the alley from Mr. Wilcox's block. Three firemen were in the alley with a good stream which they turned from the old barn to the feed store. In the latter building was plenty of combustible material and it burned warmly. Between two fires the pipemen worked risking the chance that the burning wall of the old barn might fall any moment. A stiff breeze from the southwest fanned the twining tongues of flame to the big building and the two fires joined over the heads of the men. Mr. Proctor's books, papers and buggy were rushed from the building by spectators and firemen while the flames were hottest.

Dr. Horn's Barn Ignited.

Dr. William Horne's barn standing back of the building occupied by Mr. Proctor and also in the rear of the Wilcox building soon caught fire and burned like tinder. All that was left of it was the blackened foundation and a few charred timbers. This building was built forty years ago and its solid oak sills had been hewn from the standing trees. Therefore it burned but slowly as compared with the other edifices.

On the north side of Park street George C. McLean's barn is located. It is a two-story wooden structure and was in imminent danger but Mr. McLean was out with his garden hose and kept it yet which probably prevented its igniting. The old S. L. James building which extends from Park to Main street was on fire at the gate nearest the Wilcox building, but two men were stationed on the roof with one of the fire police's extinguishers and the flames were squelched as soon as they started.

Conrad Row Appeared Doomed.

While one set of men were laboring with the flames in the Wilcox building, another set fighting the fire in the two Horne barns a third complement were having a very lively time on Court street. The wind was in just the right direction to carry the blaze across the street to the light one story frame building, known as the "Conrad row" and owned by W. B. Conrad. Soon the fronts of the stores in the middle of the row were blazing. The heat on the sidewalks was intense; so fierce that the firemen had to work between two big dry goods boxes to keep the heat from them. A stream was quickly playing on the blaze and it was held in check until the Wilcox building was burned down when it was easily extinguished. The row is occupied by Nelson Brothers, liverymen; Cody Brothers, plumbers; W. M. Wright, harness shop; O. F. Nowlan, office; Richard Brown, feed store and L. S. Hillbrandt, tents, awnings and bicycles. While the Wilcox blaze was at its height it was feared that the firemen would be unable to cope with it as the flames from the blaze leaped clear across the street. Nearly every pane of glass in the Conrad row was broken, and the front of the buildings nearest the fire were charred and burned.

Horses Ran Wild.

A dense crowd filled Court street and banked the bridge full, while the fire burned. Between Main and Park streets the sidewalks were thronged with people and at the corner stood the aerial truck. Massed at the court house park and on the Main street sidewalks was another crowd. "Look out!" was the warning that came from fifty throats and the crowds surged back. The clattering of many hoofs told what the warning meant. The horses in Nelson Brothers' barn had been turned loose to shift for themselves. With snorts of fear, heads and tails in the air and their halter straps dangling about their feet, they galloped up the street. Some of them went up Court street, and others turned in both directions upon Main street. It was feared that the barn would burn so it was decided to set all the stock free. This was no easy task as there was no arrangement for getting them out except by the Court street entrance. It was too hot for a man to stand in the door without something to protect himself, so leading horses out was an impossibility. In the extremity it was decided to "jump" the horses through a door that opened into the alley four feet above the ground. As fast as the horses were liberated they came out of the alley with a rush and took to their heels.

Heller Lost His All.

The Wilcox building was unoccupied except by Elias Heller, who had lately come to Janesville from Beloit and opened a plow repair shop. His buggy, which was left in the building, was destroyed, together with all his tools and those of A. L. Neilson, who sub-rented of Heller, and ran a wagon woodwork shop.

"I had no insurance," said Heller, as he watched the building burn; "and I have not only lost all, but I have no tools to work with."

Charles T. Wilcox, who owned the building had 8000 pound of tobacco and 200 bushels of oats in the building, besides a carriage that cost new, $700 and two horses. All were destroyed. He had no insurance on either building or contents.

C. B. Conrad had a fine set of furniture valued at $100, stored in the building and it was totally destroyed. Dr. William Horne, who owned the building occupied by Mr. Proctor, and the other barn in the rear lost $1200 with but $500 insurance. Mr. Proctor's loss is in the neighborhood of $800.

"This is the first night that I have left my books, papers and buggy in the building," he said, as he saw the property go up in smoke; "but they got them all out before I got down. I have $200 insurance and my loss will be $600 more than that."

Conrad Had No Insurance.

"I cannot estimate my damage now," said W. B. Conrad "but I have no insurance."

J. McCue, of the firm of Murphy & McCue, the liverymen, was one of the spectators, and he couldn't help congratulating himself.

"We were going to move into that building tomorrow," he said as he pointed to the Wilcox edifice, "and I am glad we hadn't moved. There was no gas in the building and the service pipe was capped up at the street so the fire couldn't have caught from a jet. I had just given Mr. Cody orders to put the fixtures in place today."

"We will have no loss unless some of the horses were hurt in jumping out," said John M. Nelson, "and I guess they got out all right."

No one was injured at the fire although Captain Dugan of the east side hose company, was knocked down by a stream. The fire burned until noon and a stream was kept on it until that time. The "fire out" signal was sent in about 6:30. Five streams were used in all, the deluge set making them equal to seven in all. Both hose carts were emptied and both were sent back for more while the fire patrol also brought an extra lead.

There was no fire in the building, and therefore, the theory that the blaze was of incendiary origin gained credence. Mr. Nelson, who worked in Heller's blacksmith shop was in his shop at 8 o'clock and said that everything was all right at that time. Whether the building was fired by a "bug" or ignited by some careless tramp who had crawled in to sleep is a mystery.

Many people were criticizing the water company claiming that the pressure was inadequate. In this connection it may be of interest to know that the register in the east side station showed that at ten minutes to three, when the alarm came in, the pressure was 68 pounds. At 3 o'clock it was 105 pounds and at 3:15 o'clock it was 120 pounds. The maximum pressure that the water company can use is 150 pounds and this is only put on when specially ordered.

BIG STREAMS OVER A COURT HOUSE

Fire Boat James Foley Stronger Than the Janesville Water Works.

The Janesville water company limits the water pressure at fires to 150 pounds, and this is obtained only on occasions of extremes. The Janesville pumps have a capacity of 4,000,000 gallons. Yesterday in Milwaukee, the fire boat James Foley, which has pumps rated at 6,000,000 gallons, maintained 220 pounds pressure on a ten-inch ordinary water main, and at a distance of 2128 feet from the boat put two 2½ inch streams of water over the statue on the dome of the court house, the head of the statue being 190 feet high and the ground on a grade fifty feet above the pumps on the boat. The streams were both from the same hydrant, fifty feet of four-inch hose being used. The pumping engines made eighty revolutions per minute under 110 pounds of steam. Their maximum speed was 140 revolutions per minute. This test with many others was witnessed by the chief engineers of Racine, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Appleton, Kenosha and Janesville, by invitation of Chief Foley.

It may not be unfair to state that there are no water services connected with the Milwaukee main, consequently no plumbing to be protected on occasions of extreme fire pressure. These special mains are used only for fire service in connection with the fire boats. The dre-boat pumping engines are of improved design, there being four in number, all connected on one shaft.

MILWAUKEE STREET TO BE PAVED

Council Orders the Clerk to Advertise For Bids at Once.

The common council decreed last evening that East Milwaukee street, from the east line of Main street to the east line of Division street, be paved with cedar blocks. This course was taken after circulating a petition among the property owners on the street, a majority of whom refused to sign, and a special committee of one alderman from each ward—Winslow, Sutherland, Smith, Heddles and Cunningham, reporting that pavement was necessary. Under direction of the council the city engineer filed specifications for the work, and the clerk was directed to advertise for bids, the work to be completed by October 31. On motion of Alderman McLean, the water company was directed to lay water main on High street to connect with the new high school building.

The clerk was directed to advertise for bids to furnish the city twenty-four tons of coal, twenty tons for the fire department, and four tons for the city offices and council chamber.

SLIGHT ADVANCE IN COAL.

The Wholesale Price of Anthracite to be Increased October 1.

There will be a slight advance in the wholesale price of anthracite coal on October 1, though Janesville dealers say they do not expect the retail price to change. It is now $6.50. The anthracite sales agents, at this week's meeting, estimated the October market requirements at 3,000,000 tons. This is a reduction of about 1,250,000 tons as compared with October last year. It was decided to adhere to the May circular, which is $3.50 per ton for broken and egg and $3.75 for stove and chestnut. Prices in the west were made as follows: At Buffalo $4 for grate and $4.15 for other sizes and at Chicago $4.75 for grate and $5 per ton for other sizes. The advance takes effect October 1.

PARIS NOTES.

Fashions and Fads at the Gay French Capital.

Lawn tennis is extremely popular in France. The game is considered a hygienic pursuit, and even the young girls who are kept within such exceedingly narrow bounds are permitted to enjoy it. Perhaps this is one step toward their emancipation from the mental and moral straitjacket, but they still play it with gloves on. Striped flannel is the accepted material for tennis gowns.

Dainty arrangements for the neck and shoulders are still in high favor. The collar band is decorated with a buckle, bows, choux or small bunches of flowers.

Stripes are characteristic of the newest silks. Checks are also seen, and each is sometimes combined with a floral pattern. Half length capes of cloth, ornamented with braid, are to be worn this fall and winter. These are, of course, for ordinary use. They close under a large bow of ribbon at the throat, and the back of the neck is similarly ornamented with a bow and long ends.

Satin is the favored material for wedding gowns just now.

Bodices made of accordion plaited black mousseline de sole are in great vogue at present and are worn with the plain black silk or satin skirt which is so generally useful an item of the modern wardrobe.

The round bodice shows no indications as yet of declining in popularity. In the majority of the new models the basque is entirely omitted, and the belt is more or less in evidence, emphasized by a buckle or large bow.

The illustration shows a beautiful gown of black and white striped silk. On either side of the front breadth of the plain round skirt is inserted a pointed piece of deep ecru lace. The blouse corsage has a full chemise yoke of cream mousseline de sole, bordered with ecru lace, which also forms epaulets. The full silk elbow sleeves are irregularly draped. The wrinkled collar is of black tulle and lace and the girldle of black moire ribbon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE HAIR.

Imagine Frances Willard in Straight Bangs or George Elliot in Frizzes.

It would be quite worth while for the average young woman who desires to present an attractive appearance to go to some high class hairdresser and obtain directions for doing her hair, or at least a model from which to work. It would save her a great deal of anxiety and trouble unless indeed she be one of that variable sort that is satisfied with nothing save for a very short time. Every head and face has some eminently suitable style, and this should be followed, to a certain extent at least, during the wearer's entire lifetime. Marie Antoinette, Martha Washington and other notable women would scarcely seem like themselves with their hair arranged in the frivolous fashion that many women of the day affect. Imagine Frances Willard with her hair in a straight bang or George Elliot in a false front and frizzes. Such a suggestion would be ridiculous in the extreme. It is only usage that makes us tolerate this absurd practice of changing the style of dressing the hair so frequently. Women with dignity and brains choose a style and adhere to it, regardless of these changes, and are more elegant and attractive looking in consequence.

The more beautiful hair is the simpler should be its arrangement. Tresses having no especial merit of color, texture or quantity are the sort best suited for complicated styles, but it is worth while to remember that an elaborate coiffure increases the apparent age. Ribbon decorations are only appropriate for young women. Any fashion which involves drawing the hair tight or twisting and braiding it hard is sure to be unbecoming.

There is always a certain proportion of women desirous of keeping up with the latest developments in gowns and hair-dressing. For the benefit of these, who adopt a style because it is the fashion and who are always hungry for novelties, a sketch is given of the newest Paris mode of coiffure. The hair is necessarily short and closely curled and waved around the face and neck, but left smooth over the crown. The decorations consist of an immense bow of ribbon, from the center of which rises a cluster of ostrich tips.

Enameling Steam Boilers.

A new method of enameling steam boilers will, it is claimed, obviate the frequent troubles arising from incrustation and corrosion in boilers. It consists in the coating of the inner surfaces with a deposit in the form of a smooth, extremely thin black enamel. This enamel, it is asserted, is not attacked by acids.

May—I really think he loves me.

Carrie—I am sure of it.

May—What makes you so sure of it?

Carrie—I heard him asking you to sing last night.—Town Topics.

IN paint the best is the cheapest. Don't be misled by trying what is said to be "just as good," but when you paint insist upon having a genuine brand of

Strictly Pure

White Lead

It costs no more per gallon than cheap paints, and lasts many times as long.

Look out for the brands of White Lead offered you; any of the following are sure:

"Southern," "Red Seal,"

"Collier," "Shipman."

FOR COLORS.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors.

These colors are sold in one-pound cans, each can being sufficient to tint 25 pounds of strictly Pure White Lead of the desired shade; they are in no sense ready-mixed paints, but a combination of perfectly pure colors in the handiest form to tint Strictly Pure White Lead.

A good many thousands have been saved property-owners by having our book on painting and color-card. Send us a postal card and get both free.

NEW YORK STATE POLITICS

All political eyes are turned upon the fall campaign, now under way in New York state. The position occupied by that commonwealth in politics is unique in that state elections have often foreshadowed the outcome of national issues. Moreover it is regarded as holding the balance of power. One year ago the democratic party was burned down for nominating for judge of the supreme court, a proved perjurer, by name Isaac H. Maynard. Owing to the fact that Governor Flower held over, the democratic party, although in the minority in both the assembly and the senate, was able to clog all reform administration. However, in so doing it added to its very odorous record of corruption, and has been the recipient of the contempt of citizens who love law and honest government. As reflecting the desperate straits into which the party has worked itself, may be cited the veto of Governor Flower of a bill appropriating money to defray the expenses of a committee appointed by the senate to investigate the police department of New York city. In this veto, the worthy governor, speaking by the card, took occasion to remark that the police department of the city of New York was the best organized and governed in the world. The committee in the six months which followed this gratuitous whitewash has proved that the police department of the city of New York is rotten to the core. Perhaps the investigation has done more than any other one thing, unless it be the United States democratic senate, to sick the citizens of New York of democratic misrule. It has demonstrated to the satisfaction of every fair minded citizen that Tammany, the wolf of the democratic party of the state is politically and criminally corrupt. This committee is still doing good work, and is adding daily to republican support by exposures almost unparalleled in municipal history. The democratic party is hard pressed. It was short a gubernatorial candidate up to the hour of holding its convention. The best men in the party, and there are many who are honest, refused a nomination. This was notably true of Judge Gaynor, who declined to make himself a target or to pose as a champion of Hillism or Crookism. The party was reduced to the expedient of trotting out its only available man. Thus the country at large is treated to the very amusing spectacle of David B. Hill, senator, astute politician, demagogue and presidential aspirant of some dozen years' standing, agreeing to resign his senatorship if elected governor, after having resigned as governor to enter the senate. From this it would appear as if Mr. Hill believed the entrance to the white house was by way of the back door.

A very suggestive fact regarding the situation has been the general desire for nomination on the republican ticket, and a dirth of democratic candidates. The republican ticket is a strong one. Its head, Levi P. Morton, has been tried and not found wanting.

He is thoroughly in accord with all elements of his party, and in addition to commanding their undivided support, he is almost sure to secure as a following a large independent vote that is weary of misrule and bossism. National issues are certain to play an important part in the campaign. The thousands upon thousands of workmen of the great cities know thoroughly well where to place the responsibility of their reduced wages or lack of work.

Hon. Bourke Cockran said while the tariff monstrosity was pending in congress, that as soon as it became a law there would be three good places open to every man out of employment. Although the thing has now been a law for more than a month, Mr. Cockran has failed to locate any of those good places. There is reason to believe that these places and the dollar wheat promised two years ago by democrats, belong to the same category.

The democratic managers are so badly frightened at the revolt of the Louisiana sugar planters that they have promised them that congress will, at the coming session, provide for the payment of the sugar bounty on this year's crop, if they will remain in the democratic party.

Senator Bruce is said to be determined that Tom Johnson shall not be returned to congress. Money ought to be plentiful in the Twenty-First Ohio congressional district this fall.

It seems that Kentucky democrats do sometimes venture out without a revolver or a bowie knife, notwithstanding the popular impression to the contrary.

Bishop Potter says a trip to Europe is a sure cure for the big head. Who'll start a popular subscription to send Mr. Cleveland to Europe?

Republican principles—good things: pass them along.

RAINMAKING.

The Apparatus Used to Draw Showers in the West.

The faith of prairie residents in the modern Aquarius, the rainmaker, is evidenced by the large sums received from localities for trials of the unique science. From $100 to $500 for five days' work is the ruling quotation for a visit from the rainmaker and usually even these amounts are not contingent upon rain appearing. The modern rainmaker has his apparatus on wheels and his car's advent into a prairie town is hailed with delight and wonder. The Rock Island railway has three cars operating in Kansas and Nebraska constantly, and half a score of independent aspirants for cloud ruling work in the same territory. When the rainmaker's car is sidetracked at a prairie station and gets ready to bombard the heavens it presents an odd appearance. On top of a freight car is a tank holding 800 gallons of water. Through the roof project three pipes to lead into the above the gases generated in the laboratory inside.

In one end of the car is the operator's living room. In the other is an imposing array of bottles, jars, electric battery, cells, pipes and wires. The principle on which the work is done is that of sending electrified gases through the pipes. These being lighter than air ascend with great rapidity to an altitude of 4,500 to 6,000 feet where they are supposed to intercept a current of moisture moving from northeast to southwest and turning cold, sink, forming a vacuum into which are drawn the moisture laden air currents.

About 4,500 cubic feet of gas is sent up per hour and the records of the rainmakers show that, either through some influence or by good fortune, clouds have formed soon after the issuing of the gases at many stations—although in some instances they have bombarded the heavens in vain for days. The operation is quite expensive, an alloy with mercurium, costing $15 a pound, being much used, and the cost of the cars is about $100 a day.

A Famous Comic Weekly.

It is now fifty years since the Fliegende Blaetter was started in Munich. During the first ten or twelve years the Fliegende Blaetter did not appear regularly, but merely from time to time. The two publishers were Kaspar Braum, a clever artist, endowed with a rich, flowing vein of humor, and Frederick Schneider, who was possessed of a tender and poetic soul. The former also took charge of the artistic part, and the latter fixed the literary standard of the periodical. Kaspar Braum died in 1879 and his partner in 1864.

College Driver Is All Right.

Driver Easton who piloted Badge to victory in the 2:40 pacing race yesterday is called the "college-graduate horseman." Easton passed through Cornell college, getting his diploma.

While he was studying he was much interested in college athletics and became one of the "star men" and for that reason was put upon the team selected to go to England to compete with the athletes of the English schools. So interested was he that he kept in training all the time. This eventually had its effect and Easton was finally taken sick. He was taken to the train in a carriage, as he was too weak to walk and the doctors said that death was but a short distance off. It was in this dire extremity that Easton decided to go to the farm of his uncle S. J. B. Easton at Rochester Minnesota in hopes that open air life would do him good.

This proved to be true, for Easton began to get better at once. Then he took an interest in the horses and spent much time driving and caring for them. This season he has been campaigning Badge and with good success. Easton is tall and wiry in build, and when he gets his dusty driving clothes on he doesn't look much like a man who could read Greek. Neither does he look as if he had been so near the other world.

Kelly Wasn't a Professional.

"MRS. E. D. KELLY, ASHTABULA, O.—Russell second. All Well. E. D. KELLY."

That was one of the telegrams that flashed out of Janesville yesterday afternoon. The driver of Russell B., the fast pacer, was the sender, and the Gazette's telephone at the race track, was the medium of the transmission to town.

"My wife will sit down and cry when she gets this dispatch" said Mr. Kelly. "She is scared to death to have me drive in a race for fear I will get hurt. This is the third race that I have ever driven. The first one was at Des Moines, Iowa, and the second at Milwaukee. I had my entrance paid in these stake races and I thought that I would come up and drive them as my man could not. I have won two seconds and one third money in the three races. The three drivers I had to go with today were all gentlemen though" he added "and I didn't feel uneasy. I couldn't beat Vera Capelle but my colt—he's a four-year old—acts like a pretty good one."

Virginus Worked Hard.

Phallamont blood showed itself to be pretty good in the 2:20 race, yesterday. Among the horses that contested was Virginus, the good son of Phallamont, who is campaigned by E. W. Sherman. Virginus started in the stallion free-for-all at Elkhorn Wednesday afternoon and won second money by winning second place in each heat. The best time was 2:21.4 which was the best ever made on the half-mile course. The horse was then shipped by special Milwaukee & St. Paul train to Janesville getting here at one o'clock. When the race was called at three o'clock, the Phallamont was one of the first ones out and he went three good heats getting second position in 2:20.4 and two third places in 2:17.4. He took part in every heat all the way. A hot race on a half-mile track one day and another hammer and tongs experience on the next, with a hundred mile ride in between is enough to try any horse, but Virginus stood it.

E. F. Carpenter's mare Dolly H., made a much better showing yesterday than her position in the summary would indicate. In the first heat she threw two shoes and then got into fifth place. Many thought Dolly H. could win; but Zero was just right, and no horse on the race could compete with her.

BIG LINE FROM NEW YORK IS HERE

Every Woman in the County Can Have a Silk Dress.

One might well think, judging from the pile of silks corded up in front of The Big Store today, that there was $40,000 worth of them alone, to say nothing of the other immense shipments of fall and winter goods they are receiving. Last week J. M. Bostwick attended the largest sale of silks that was ever held in this country and bought enough so that every woman in Rock county can have a new silk. Every woman will want one when she learns how low a good reliable silk can be bought. The large firm of Schwarzenbach, Huber & Co. sold at auction through Townsend & Montauk, 8,200 pieces of silk, being the production of this firm's mills on both sides of the Atlantic. The largest wholesale house could buy no cheaper than Messrs. Bostwick & Sons, and while the former bought to sell to retailers the enterprising Janesville house bought for their immense retail trade, and their customers get their silk direct from first hands. The following appeared in the New York Dry Goods Economist:

"The New York Dry Goods Exchange was among the largest purchasers at the great silk auction sale this week. The members of the exchange who bought most largely were J. M. Bostwick & Sons, the J. P. Queen Dry Goods Co., Hutzler Bros., the Cohen Co., Coulter Dry Goods Co. and J. M. High & Co."

The silks will be put on sale in a day or two, and the people of this city can figure on buying silks at prices lower than ever before known. Competitors will simply be not in it. It takes the Big Store to do things. They do not advertise to have carloads of goods arriving and only receive occasionally a few small cases or bales, but they go quietly about their business and shows as usual, the most complete stock of dry goods and carpets for miles around.

OCCASIONAL KISSING ALL RIGHT

Rev. Mr. Leete Hids for the Votes of Rockford Young People.

All the young people in Rockford swear by Rev. Mr. Leete. In his sermon Sunday night he referred to "experimental love," saying:

"I know I am treading on dangerous ground. But who hasn't had more than one lover? I wouldn't give much for the fellow who hasn't thought a good deal of more than one girl, or the girl who hasn't thought a good deal of more than one fellow. I don't mean the fellow who takes a girl out riding and mortgages his next week's pay to do it. I mean to love each other enough to kiss each other, perhaps rarely and sparingly of course."

COLTS WRECKED HIS WAGON.

Lively Runaway on Milton Avenue Last Evening—Team Headed For Home.

Charles Dixon's team of colts attached to a light lumber wagon, made a wild and wicked run on Milton avenue last evening. Dixon was thrown from the wagon receiving a number of bruises and a sprained ankle. The colts continued their run to their home, two or three miles out on the avenue. The wagon was partly wrecked and left at Glen street.

CAUGHT THE GANG WHO ROBBED ROCK

THREE BURGLARS ARRESTED AND FREED.

De Kalb Officers Find the Trio with Plunder in Their Pockets, But Fail To Identify the Goods—The Thieves Have Probably Fled Toward Clinton, Iowa.

For two days the thieves who robbed Rock county stores have been in the hands of De Kalb officers. Last night they were released.

Janesville police were not notified until too late.

Six men composed the gang that has been looting clothing stores and hardware establishments in different parts of the county for the last ten days. They made De Kalb their headquarters but did all their work in Wisconsin. Forten days their attention has been centered in Rock county. Clinton, Evansville, Orfordville, Milton, Milton Junction and Beloit were visited on successive nights.

Early morning trains carried the thieves back across the state line to "plant" their plunder. They took nothing but cutlery and revolvers except in Orfordville where a lot of clothing was bundled up.

The cutlery gave De Kalb police their first clue. One of the gang, who did not act like a peddler tried to retail fine pocket knives around the street for 25 cents apiece. He said they were bankrupt stock, and when he couldn't sell them he gave away a pocket full to some little boys. His suspicious actions attracted the attention of the marshal, who had found three or four new knives lying in the C. & N. W. switch yards. The peddler was arrested and two of his companions dropped into the arms of the police a little later. They were found behind a freight shed pulling tags off some new clothing. Both had pockets full of cutlery.

There were three other members of the gang but they escaped. The three who were arrested were held until last night and then were released, nobody appearing to identify the goods. It is probable that the gang went west from De Kalb toward Clinton, Iowa.

Ha! Very Amusing.

We notice by the morning sheet, and possibly in this issue, that competitors have already commenced to advertise our immense silk purchase of which a full account appears in another column. If they commence squirming this early imagine their writhings before we get through with our great sale. Chicago buyers would never do for us. We prefer to do our own buying. The silk bargains we will give the people will be nothing short of wonderful. Come in and use your judgment as to the values we offer or have a judge of silks come with you. We are prepared to substantiate all statements we have made.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Small Profits on Rubbers.

We have more rubber goods than any two houses in Janesville. We bought twice as many, and for cash. That's why we were given the lowest prices. We also bought before the advance. No one can compete with us in this line, on quality, style or price. BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

Dress Goods Pointers.

Today finds us with the most extensive showing of the new dress goods that it has ever been our good fortune to display, and whether in low or high cost there is a wide range to select from. At fifty cents a yard we show a great number of styles, and ladies wanting a moderate priced outfit should make an inspection of the line. It costs nothing to look and we shall be glad to see you.

THE FLINTS

WOMAN'S WAY.

Mrs. Benjamin Galbraith of Maysville, Ky., recently presented her husband with a fourth set of twins.

Miss Frances E. Willard attributes her gain in health and weight to the fact that while she was visiting in England they made her eat five hearty meals a day.

It frequently happens that the prettiest maidens do not obtain husbands. It was thus in ancient days, for it is well known that the Three Graces remained old maids.

"Who is that man to whom Mrs. Muchwood is speaking? She seems to know him very well. Is he a connection?" "A distant one. She was, I believe, his second wife."

"Mrs. Blumber is very nervous about there being thirteen at the table tonight." "Does she think something unpleasant will happen?" "Yes; she has only a dozen knives and forks."

It is very much easier for a girl to stand before an audience in a white silk dress and the consciousness that she is looking well, and talk of the nobility and courage that meet life boldly, than it is to be patient while washing dishes.

A widower married a sister of his late wife a few weeks after the death of the latter. An acquaintance who had just returned from a long journey sympathetically inquired whom he was in mourning for. "For my sister-in-law," was the hesitating reply.

Ethel—Fido's barking has really given me an earache. Cousin Bob—Try encephalitis. Ethel—Is that good? Cousin Bob—Fine; saturate a sponge, tie it around his neck and put him under a tub.

She—Who can doubt the power of woman's love! Think of the thousands of wild youths who have settled down into staid and respectable citizens as soon as they are married. He—Good lands! they couldn't afford to be anything else after they got married.

There are now three women physicians on the sanitary corps of the New York board of health—Mrs. Alice Mitchell, Helen Knight and Frances G. Deane. They are under the same rules and are required to do the same amount of hard work as their masculine associates.

Woman journalists are forbidden in Japan. But Japanese ladies do not lose much by this prohibition, inasmuch as the most successful Japanese writer of serial stories, who spends his whole day at the desk, just manages to make $5 a month—is, in a word, passing rich and famous on $50 a year.

MEN OF MANY MINDS.

"Your husband wears his hair very short." "Yes, the cowardly wretch!" replied Mrs. Turner.

Casimir-Perier, the president of France, is said to be the owner of a private fortune of $25,000,000.

Matrimony is all right so long as both husband and wife like to read their old love letters to each other.

A Buffalo, N. Y., man rides a wheel upon which are also accommodated three juvenile members of his family, while his wife's bicycle also carries the baby and one of the older children.

A Somerset, Maine, man had his watch and all his wife's jewelry stolen while he slept in the room where they were kept. He attributes the fact that he did not wake up to his inveterate habit of snoring in a way to drown the noise of burglars' footsteps. So he has advertised for something to cure snoring.

The heaviest cyclist in the world is said to be Dr. Meldon of Dublin, who weighs 378 pounds. He also plays lawn tennis.

The late George Inness, the landscape artist, was a sensitive and retiring man, but there was an impulsiveness in his nature that once got him into serious trouble in Rome. During his art-student days there, while he was watching a religious procession as it passed in the street, he struck down with his cane a helmeted gendarme who had ordered him to remove his hat. For this offense Mr. Inness was at once thrust into prison, and it was only through the strenuous efforts of the American minister that he secured his release.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The arbor vitae comes from Canada. A New York saloon is named "The Right Spot."

China's regular army consists of 323,000 men.

The rate of taxation has nearly quadrupled in France since 1830.

A dredger powerful enough to cut its way through soft rock has been constructed in Scotland.

The revolutionary war cost America $135,193,703, and the next war with the British cost $107,159,003.

A man who was assaulted in New York made a bee line for a photographer's after the affray and had his damaged face recorded for future reference in court.

So numerous are the photographers, amateur and otherwise, who now travel about the country, provided with kodak and camera, that many hotels and boarding houses have inserted the words "dark room" for the use of lodgers in their advertisements.

A story is told by a French paper of two provincials, a man and his wife, who visited the Louvre in Paris. "What struck you most at the Louvre?" asked one of their friends, when they returned home and began to tell of the wonders they had seen. "Oh," replied the husband, "a picture that represented Adam and Eve, with that apple and the serpent." And his excellent wife chimed in: "Yes, we found that very interesting, because, you know, we knew the snake-dots."

PACKING TRUNKS FOR A LIVING

An Occupation Which Ought to Suit Women and Should Pay in Season.

What is really a sensible occupation that could be managed from the women's exchanges would be that of trunk-packer. In these days of widespread summer travel, packing has come to be a dreaded necessity with women. The difference between skilled and unskilled trunk storing cannot be fully appreciated until the two are compared. There is an economy in it that is obvious. It means fewer trunks, less destruction to contents, and, above all, the blissful relief to bodies and brains taxed to the last degree in leaving a house in deserted summer trim, putting finishing touches to the family wardrobe, looking after the comfort of those to be left, and all the rest. There was a woman who wrapped a silk dress skirt last summer around a jar of grandma's preserves, which she could not resist attempting to bring home with her, who would better have employed a professional packer at $1 a trunk. The cleaner's bill was $4, and she lost the preserves, too. The occupation would not be so laborious to the professional packer as it is to the amateur. The confidence of knowledge is a great relief in itself, and the "professional" would insist upon the trunk being set upon a rest and all its intended contents spread out before her, serious looks to packing which the woman trying to be in half a dozen places at once on packing day often ignores. Meantime, if you must pack your own trunks, dear sister, spike your hats and bonnets to the trunk tray with your hat pins, discard boxes, pack bottles only in cork-lined cases that come for the purpose, carrying them in a separate bag otherwise and don't pack on a damp day near the window or you'll find your beautifully starched muslins and linens limp as a rag when they are taken out.

At the Grand.

Wm. J. Wood and his former companions drew crowds on the streets all day yesterday and last evening they presented their rural domestic comedy drama, Squire Haskins, at the Myers Grand Opera house. There is considerable of a plot to the play and some very interesting and critical situations. During the play some good specialties were introduced by different members of the company, all of which were very good, especially the singing and dancing by Miss Maud Sutton, who has the quality for an excellent soprano. With the proper training she will soon be on the top of the heap in stage life. She entertained the audience very admirably last evening, her performance alone being worth the price of admission. Squire Haskins spent a very pleasant day and evening in the city, and the many who were entertained by him and his chums at the Myers Grand last evening were very highly pleased.

YOUR GOOD HEALTH.

If you're a suffering woman, demands Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There's no other medicine like it, for women's peculiar ills. No matter how distressing your symptoms, it relieves your aches and pains, and if faithfully used will bring a permanent cure in every chronic weakness or derangement, in catarrhal inflammation, and in the displacements of women. West Liberty, O. Dr. R. V. Pierce: Dear Sir—I can cheerfully recommend your valuable medicine, the "Favorite Prescription," to suffering females. Three years ago my health became so poor that I was scarcely able to help with the household duties. I was persuaded to try your medicine, and I purchased six bottles. That, with the local treatment you advised, made me strong and well. My sister has used it in the family with like results.

GEO. H. BATES, City Clerk.
Dated, Janesville, Wis., Sept. 24, 1894.

GRADING.
Said street shall be graded so as to bring its surface at a uniform depth of eleven inches below the established grade of the same; and in doing said grading the earth is to be scraped off to the required depth so as not to loosen the soil below. Also in all places in said street where trenching has been done for water, sewer pipes or connections of any kind, such places shall be made firm and secure against unequal settling. If any filling is done in bringing said street to this grade it must be done with sand or gravel, free from all perishable materials. After the surface has been shaped to conform to the pavement above, it shall be thoroughly rolled or tamped to make it secure against settling; which having been done a ballasting of four (4) inches of clean sand or fine gravel shall be spread in such a manner that the sub grade of said street shall be uniformly seven (7) inches below the grade thereof, said ballast to be well rolled or tamped so as to make it firm. The cross section of each side of said street from the gutter to the street curb shall be shaped so as to form a segment of a circle whose radius shall be three hundred (300) ft. and at the center of the street to correspond with the grade of said street; the gutters to be placed at such grade and depth as the city engineer may direct, the same to be two-tenths (2-10) of a foot lower at a point eighteen (18) inches out from the curb than at the street curb line. The grading of said street and the ballasting thereof shall be done under the direction of and to the satisfaction of a special committee appointed by the mayor of said city.

CURBING.
All stone and brick cross walks which shall be removed in grading said street and also all rubble and gravel which is excavated in doing said grading and is not used in the embankment shall be deposited for the use and benefit of the city by the contractor at such place or places, not more than two (2) blocks from the curb line, as the city engineer may direct, without extra charge.

The work shall be carried on in such a manner as to impede and obstruct traffic on said street as little as possible and yet be consistent with the speedy and economical completion of said work.

CURBING.
Curbs shall be placed in such places as the special committee shall direct and is to be of good, durable material, such as granite, limestone or other stone of equal quality, free from sea shells, cracks or other defects not less than three feet long, twenty-four (24) inches wide and four (4) inches thick. The tops of said curbs shall be dressed to a uniform level and the undersides shall be to a depth of ten (10) inches from their tops, to be dressed to a depth of fifteen (15) inches so as to form close joints with each other.

Said stones are to be firmly set and secured to conform to the alignment and grade given by the city engineer, and are to be securely rest on a bed of fine gravel at least six (6) inches thick, well tamped and set, and be thoroughly packed with sand or fine gravel at least four (4) inches in width at their backs.

STRINGERS.
The surface of said street, having been brought to conform to the sub grade of the same, and having been dressed with a ballast of at least four (4) inches of good clean sand or fine gravel, well and thoroughly tamped, there shall be laid at right angles across said street and at intervals of four feet apart, durable white pine stringers, one (1) in thickness, eight (8) feet long and not less than sixteen (16) feet in length. Said stringers shall be free from rot, sap, wind shake or other defects; they shall be well and firmly imbedded in the sand or fine gravel forming the ballasting so that the top surface of said stringer shall accurately conform to the sub-grade of said street. When said stringers are thus laid, the sand or fine gravel between them shall be carefully dressed with a straight edge, so as to insure that the top surface of the ballasting between the stringers shall present a smooth, compact and uniform surface, conforming to the sub-grade of said street, preparatory to laying the flooring.

FLOORING.
Resting on the stringers and the ballasting between them, shall be a flooring formed of good, sound, green hemlock boards, free from rot, sap, wind shakes or other defects, to be laid in a uniform length of six (6) inches, and from eight (8) to twelve (12) inches wide and sixteen (16) feet long; they are to be laid lengthwise of the street, in close contact, their ends being sawed off square so as to form close joints.

PAVING.
Between the curbing and on either side of said street and the street car track in the center and resting upon the flooring prepared as above specified, shall be the paving of cedar blocks, which shall form the road bed of said street. Said blocks shall have a uniform length of six (6) inches, sawed from good, sound, live cedar posts, of from four to ten inches in diameter, free from bark, rot or other defects. They are to be placed on their ends upon the flooring in close contact with each other, and to be kept well driven up so as to form close joints and a firm road-bed. During the progress of laying the paving, blocks of different diameters must be so arranged and placed with reference to each other, as to leave the smallest practical space between the blocks. Spaces approaching a square form must be avoided, and no spilt blocks of less than three inches in diameter will be allowed. All spaces between the blocks are to be filled with screened gravel of a quality, size and screening, satisfactory to the special committee appointed by the mayor of said city, the same to be thoroughly tamped with proper tools until solid, and refilled and retamped, until the spaces have been completely filled with firm and solidly tamped gravel. The whole work to be done under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the above mentioned committee. After the filling shall have been completed the top surface of the paving shall be swept off with a coarse broom, the paving shall be covered with fine screened gravel to a depth of one inch.

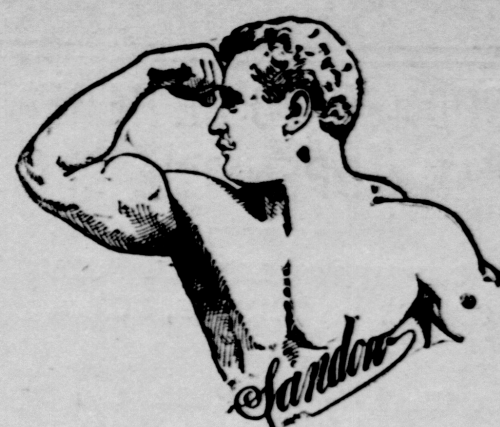

CROSS-WALKS.
There shall be four cross-walks at the intersection of East Milwaukee and Bluff Sts., and 4 at the intersection of East Milwaukee and Division Sts., unless otherwise directed by the city engineer. Said walks shall be made by raising the pavement in the usual manner; the width of each shall be in the center of the walk, the same to be twelve feet wide and so constructed that the crown will be even and of such grade as directed by said city engineer.

The street upon its completion shall be left free from rubbish and impediments of all kinds. That portion of said street adjacent to and adjoining this improvement, and the portions of cross streets adjoining the same, shall be left as good condition as they were just preceding the commencement of the work herein specified.

All connections of the pavement with sewerage, gas or water openings shall be substantially and properly made, and the street upon completion shall have a uniform smooth surface, conforming to the final grade and crown of said street, and it shall be left by the contractor in perfect order and condition. It is expressly understood that the contractor shall not be entitled to any allowance on account of injury to said street, by reason of rain or otherwise, during the progress of the work herein specified; or before the same has been completed and accepted as herein stated.

It is also expressly understood that the price per square yard named in the contract for paving said street, shall cover the whole cost of grading, curbing, ballasting, laying the stringers, flooring and paving blocks as herein specified and contemplated, and that the price per square yard named in the contract for curbing, setting and properly securing in position new curbing as herein specified. No extra allowance whatever will be made.

These specifications are hereby declared to be part of the contract for grading, curbing and paving said street. O. G. HLEBOURN, City Engineer.

BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

Trouble Coming.

Rev. D. Fourthly, accompanied by Mrs. Fourthly, was making a pastoral call at the Shackelford dwelling, and had unconsciously prolonged his stay until the afternoon sun was low in the sky and Tommy Shackelford had begun to grow hungry.

Burning with righteous indignation, and moved by a strong sense of personal ill-treatment, Tommy strode into the parlor.

"Maw," he said, in a high-pitched voice, "you'd better get a gait on you. If paw comes home an' finds supper ain't ready again, he'll raise the darnedest row ever you went anywhere."—Chicago Tribune.

Explaining It.

A little girl of this city recently gave a forcible though unconscious illustration of what foreigners find a perplexing peculiarity of our language. Her younger brother inquired:

"Do cows give beef and ham?"

"Of course, they don't," was the scornful reply. "You ought to know better than that. Cows lay milk."—Washington Star.

Not Likely to Be Intruded Upon.

Little Miss Newrich—"We is very exclusive.

Little Miss Brickrow—"Wat's that?"

"We don't have much company."

"Oh! Mamma noticed that."

"Did she?"

"Yes, and she said you wouldn't have much company, either, so long as you let your servants throw slops in the street."—Good News.

Reasoning from Analogy.

"Mamma," said the baby, "what are you soaking your feet for?"

"Because my head aches, dear."

The baby was evidently puzzled, and remained wrapt in thought for a few minutes. Then he broke the silence again.

"Mamma, if your feet ached would you soak your head?"—Truth.

The Observing Chinaman.

A Chinaman is speaking to himself as he irons a shirt. Picks up shirt showing evidence of being well cared for and says:

"Bachelor. Him landlady fix him." Picks up another, buttonless and all frayed at the neck and wrists, and says:

"Mallied man."—Texas Siftings.

An Excellent Reason.

Mr. Poppy—Fine dog that. I don't suppose you'd care to sell him.

Mr. Joppy—O, I couldn't sell him.

Poppy—Indeed, it's strange how we do become attached to our pets.

Joppy—But that is not it. I couldn't sell him because no one would buy him. —Arkansas Traveler.

Needed Sleep Badly.

"I want something that will make me sleep, doctor."

Doctor—What are you suffering from?

"It's a tooth coming."

"One of your wisdom teeth?"

"Goodness, no; one of the baby's teeth."—Answers.

Overdid His Part.

Teacher—Why did you put that pin in my chair?

Bad Boy—Boo-hoo! How do yer know I put it dere?

Teacher—Because you were the only boy in the room who was hard at work studying when I sat on it.—Judge.

Always Ready.

"Did Miss Flyppe receive many proposals?"

"Many? Why, receiving proposals has got to be a habit with her. She has got so used to them that she can't even hear a soda water bottle pop without exclaiming: 'This is so sudden!'"—Answers.

A Widow's Grief.

Widow—If John had only made a will there wouldn't be all this trouble about the property.

Visitor—Do the lawyers bother you?

Widow—Bother me? They almost worry me to death. I declare, I sometimes almost wish that John hadn't died.—Texas Siftings.

MODERN JOURNALISM.

"Your love of nature, madam, is so intense that I should think you would go to see the Himalayas. Compared with them our mountains are ant hills."

"Have you seen them?"

"No—not exactly; but I have written an article about them."—Fliegende Blaetter.

A Sure Sign.

Mrs. Rounder—You had been drinking pretty heavily when you came in last night.

Mr. Rounder—How do you know?

Mrs. Rounder—You tried to light your cigar at the reflection of your nose in the pier-glass.—N. Y. World.

How to Please All.

Agitator—What this country needs is compulsory arbitration.

Teacher—And compulsory education.

Preacher—And compulsory religion.

Old Maid—Yes, and compulsory love. —N. Y. Weekly.

Revenge.

"My theater hat is large," said she, "but 'tis better that way, I find. It stops the odor of cloves, you see. That is wafted me from behind."

Special Assessment Tax Notice.

To whom it may concern:—The special tax rolls for the paving of South River street, between Milwaukee and Pleasant street, and south Main street between Milwaukee and South First street, and the warrant for the collection of the same, are now in my hands for collection. All persons interested are requested to make payment of the same at the office of the city treasurers, or the same will be collected at the cost and expense of the persons liable for the payment of said special tax.

Dated this 11th day of September 1894.

JAMES A. FATHERS,

City Treasurer.

"Hail to the Chief."

This half the title of an old song. The balance is, "Who in triumph advances." The public, the press and the medical profession chant this refrain as especially applicable to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, chief among American remedies and preventatives for malaria, constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, unquiet sleep, rheumatic twinges, and the troubles incident to advanced age. It is also incident to advanced age. It is also universally recognized as a reliable tonic and appetizer. As a family medicine particularly suitable to emergencies it has no equal. The nervous, the feeble seek it aid, and the happiest results follow. The convalescent, the aged and the infirm derive infinite benefit from its use. Against the influences of impure air, bad water, unaccustomed food, overwork and exposure it is a genuine preventative.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

An Egotist's Plight.

De Bussey (moodily)—I know only two men whom I can really call my friends.

Miss Severe (with quiet interest)—And may I ask the other man's name, Mr. De Bussey?—Life.

A Sad Case.

He heaved a sorrowful sigh. A weeping tear he wept.

His love had hidden him "good-by" And all his presents kept. —Omaha World.

An Unsolved Mystery.

She—I would like to know why you married me, anyhow?

He—That's what I've been trying for six years to find out.—Texas Siftings.

THE NAMES OF CITIES.

The word Minneapolis is a compound of an Indian word meaning curling water and a Greek word meaning city.

Pittsburg was originally called Fort Du Quesne, then became Fort Pitt, in honor of the great British premier.

Chicago was named from the Chicago river, which in turn took its name from an Indian word meaning place of the wild leek or polecat plant.

St. Louis was named from Louis IX., of France. The name was originally given to his depot and trading station by Pierre Laclède Liguest.

Detroit took its name from the river, which was called by the French De Troit, the narrows. The settlement was originally called Fort Pontchartrain.

Albany is named from the second title of the duke of York, afterward James II. The title is Scottish, from the Celtic word Albyn, a native name for Scotland.

New York was named from the first title of the duke of York, afterward James II., who took the city from the Dutch in 1664. The Dutch called it New Amsterdam.

Boston was originally named Tremont, or Trimountain, from being built on three hills—Beacon, Kopp and Fort hills. In 1630 the court of Charleston ordered the name changed to Boston.

Cincinnati was originally called Losantiville. The present name was given by General St. Clair as a reminder of the Cincinnati society, an association of the officers of the revolutionary war.

General Francis Nash of the revolutionary army gave a name to Nashville, Tenn. It was first called Nashborough, which was objected to on account of being hard to spell. Nash-ton was suggested, but Nashville finally accepted in 1784.

Baton Rouge, La., was named from the fact that for many years after the town was established a gigantic cypress, the bark of which was red, grew on the site. The name means red stick, and was bestowed by the French settlers.

“Great Will Be the fall thereof.” Yes, we expect a great trade this fall. Why? Because dry goods were never know to be so low, and we have been and we are now right where they are the lowest. The hundreds of cases and bales of goods that we have recently received tell their own tale of the low state of the market.

IT'S SURELY the time to buy when you have thrust at you heavy, fine, half wool Henriettas, 46 inches wide, in nice dark colorings for fall at 29c a yard. They can't last long; only 30 pieces.

IT'S SURELY the time to buy when you can get such fine, close, firm, soft, weighty, 54 inch Sacking Flannel, in 50 shades, plain and mixtures, at 60c; the same flannel that only a few weeks ago was 75c.

IT'S TIME to buy some of the wide, heavy, regular 12 1-2c Calico at our figure, 10 yards for 75c.

A WOMAN CANNOT WHISTLE and drink at the same time. But the wide-awake people who buy their dry goods, cloaks, carpets, etc., at the THE BIG STORE this fall can whistle at hard times and drink from the cup of success.

There is much to see here and our clerks have a pleasant way of making one feel perfectly free to look at goods to their heart's content. Come in any time.

WE KEEP THE QUALITY UP.
